Many horror movies seem to ignore the solution where you just kill whatever psycho is after you. I'm thinking of some movie (can't remember the name) specifically where this guy had killed several women, and was chasing the main character around, trying to kill her. She gets in a lucky shot and knocks him out with a pool cue.

Ah, the irony. Funny how sometimes life can be just like the movies. I chuckled darkly, sometimes is stretching it. Life was so rarely like a movie, especially my life. Very few people get their happily â€œever-afters. And quite frankly, very few people deserved one. So what did you think? The other chapters will be longer, this was just an intro.
